”The critical Asian principle” in Asian theology and theological education need to be revisited, says CCA General Secretary at the ATESEA Assembly.

Genuine attempts made by the Asian ecumenical theological educators in the past in identifying “what is distinctively Asian as the critical Asian principle” in Asian theology and theological education in Asia need to be revisited by the contemporary Asian theological educators”,said CCA General Secretary Dr. Mathews George Chunakara at the General Assembly of the Association for Theological Education in South East Asia (ATESEA).
