

NEW BISHOP OF THE ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF KUCHING

On 13th August, 2017, the Reverend Donald Jute was consecrated as the 14th Bishop of Kuching at St. Thomas Cathedral in Kuching.

The consecration and enthronement worship was presided by Archbishop Datuk Ng Moon Hing and assisted by other Bishops representing the Province of South East Asia.

Bishop Donald who is of Sino-Bidayuh descent, took up the office bearing rich pastoral experiences in Sarawak and in the United Kingdom. He is passionate about church renewal as it relates to witness and service in the context of Sarawak.

He looks forward to strengthen ecumenical bonds with the churches connected to the Council of Churches.

CCM takes this opportunity to thank Bishop Datuk Bolly Lapok for his affirmative leadership as President of CCM and for speaking up for issues that affect the Church and the nation.
